

Health Care Professionals: You are invited

An Introduction to Providing Patient-Centered Care to Individuals on the Autism Spectrum

May 23, 2017 from 8-10 a.m.

The Health Professions Autism Network invites you to our kick-off event that will bring together health care professionals for networking and learning how to better serve our growing autism population.

Presentation Learning Outcomes

Health professionals will:

- understand Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) across the lifespan.
- identify challenges in the health care setting.
- strategize methods to provide patient-centered care in practice.

Presenters

ausm
autism society of minnesota

Laurie “Chet” Tschetter, B.S.Ed., Education Program Manager, and Lucas Scott, B.A., Education Specialist, Autism Society of Minnesota (AuSM). Established in 1971, AuSM is a nonprofit organization committed to education, advocacy, and support designed to enhance the lives of those affected by autism from birth through retirement.

Schedule

8-8:30 a.m.: registration open, networking, light refreshments

8:30-10 a.m.: presentation

10-10:15 a.m.: evaluations, networking

Location

La Clinica Community Room, 153 Cesar Chavez St., St. Paul, MN 55107
(street parking is available)

Cost

$30: Health Professionals

$15: Federally Qualified Health Center Employees,
Autism Society of Minnesota Members, and Students

Scan this QR code for direct link to the event registration page.

Health Professions
Autism Network

The Health Professions Autism Network is a multidisciplinary Community of Practice for healthcare providers in all settings and across the lifespan, to facilitate networking, education, and advocacy on caring for autistic individuals and families. Please join our community online:

www.healthprofessionsautismnetwork.org

Funding for this event has been provided by the Becky Taylor Fellowship, through the Glen Taylor Nursing Institute for Family and Society at Minnesota State University, Mankato.

This continuing nursing education activity was approved for AuSM by the Wisconsin Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation to award 1.75 Contact Hours/2.1 MN BON Contact Hours. Wisconsin Nurses Association is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Professionals of all other disciplines must determine if the program meets the criteria for relicensure or recertification for their discipline.

Register for this event at <https://tinyurl.com/AutismHealthCare>.