

NEW!

AuSM's Guide to Sensory-Friendly Minnesota is a reference tool and planning guide for families and individuals with autism and other sensory sensitivities. The guide will contain information about why sensory-friendly events and activities are important for our community, how to make an event or activity sensory-friendly, personal stories, and a calendar guide of sensory-friendly offerings throughout Minnesota. Families and individuals will use this guide throughout the year to plan for participation in events and activities that are tailored to accommodate their sensory needs.

YES! Please list my sensory-friendly event/activity for free!

Please complete one form per event/activity. Forms can be completed and submitted electronically at www.ausm.org or by using this listing submission form. Listing submissions are due by Nov. 30, 2018 and can be e-mailed to kthomalla@ausm.org; mailed to AuSM: Attention Sensory-Friendly Guide, 2380 Wycliff St. #102, St. Paul, MN 55038; or faxed to: 651.642.1230. Please also submit promotional photos from your venue for possible use in the guide. Photos will receive credit in the guide.
