You have a right to take time off work to vote without losing your pay, personal leave, or vacation time.

You have the right to vote if you are in line to vote anytime before 8 p.m.

You have the right to vote without anyone in the polling place trying to influence your vote.

You have the right to bring your children with you to vote.

You have the right to register to vote on Election Day if you can show the required proof of residence.

You can vote after you finish all parts of your felony conviction sentence, including any probation, parole, or other conditions such as restitution.

You have the right to orally confirm who you are and to ask another person to sign for you if you cannot sign your name.

You have the right to file a written complaint at your polling place if you are unhappy with the way an election is being run.

You have the right to vote if you are under a guardianship, unless a judge has revoked your right to vote.

You have the right to take a sample ballot into the voting booth.

You have the right to take a copy of the Voter’s Bill of Rights (Minnesota Statutes 204C.08, subd. 1b) into the voting booth.

You have the right to ask anyone for help, except for an agent of your employer or union.

You have the right to a replacement ballot if you make a mistake on your ballot before you cast it.