

Health Care Access Among LGBTQIA2S Adults with Disabilities Research Study

Shelby K. Wren, a PhD student at the University of Minnesota School of Social Work, is conducting a study regarding barriers to health care access experienced by LGBTQIA2S adults with disabilities.

You are eligible to participate if you:

- Are 18 years of age or older
- Identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, asexual, or two-spirit (LGBTQIA2S)
- Have lived with any type of disability (for example, mobility, sensory, developmental, learning, chronic health, mental health) for at least the past 12 months
- Have lived in Minnesota or Missouri for at least the past 12 months.

If you participate:

- You'll take part in an interview over the phone or on Zoom (video call) that can last up to 60 minutes
- You'll be asked questions about your experiences with health care and to draw/create a "map" of your health care experiences
- You'll have the opportunity to provide your contact information to give feedback on the preliminary study findings
- You will receive a $25 gift card to thank you for your time and expertise.
